

Data Sheet

DILUENT W-CLEAN 16

	Product Description	Cleaning diluent for engines, generators and electrical equipment in general, for removing oil, grease, dust and moisture during the maintenance process.
	Recommended use	Recommended for cleaning parts in general, removing oil, grease, dust and moisture in the automotive segment.
	Packaging	0,9L, 5L, 18L e 200L
	Features	For further information, please contact WEG's Technical Department.
	Preparation for application	For further information, please contact WEG's Technical Department.
	Use of EPP:	Read the instructions on the packaging before using the product. Use a respirator mask with a filter against organic vapors and particles when handling/applying the product, to avoid respiratory problems. Do not inhale the product or keep it close to the respiratory tract without using a respirator mask with a filter against organic vapors and particles. Use nitrile rubber gloves and safety glasses to handle the product.
	Precautions for Use	Due to the technical characteristics of the product, we inform you that it does not always follow a reference standard, therefore it may present risks, variations in color tone, drying and differences in appearance between sequential batches. Phase separation is also permitted. Technical Quality Complaints involving the characteristics mentioned above will be considered unfounded and without compensation coverage.