To whom it may concern,

WEG Equipamentos Elétricos is committed to compliance with the European legislation on the Restriction of certain Hazardous Substances (RoHS) in Electrical and Electronic Equipment, composed by Directive 2011/65/EU and Directive 2015/863.

This legislation establishes requirements for manufacturers of electrical and electronic equipment within its scope to ensure that their products and components placed on the European Community market comply with these directives. This is achieved by guaranteeing that the products do not contain hazardous substances exceeding the maximum concentration values permitted by weight in homogeneous materials.

According to the best of our knowledge and based on information made available to us by our suppliers, the products listed below comply with the requirements of the directives.

Product list:
