

Automation and Motor Training for Industrial Refrigeration Personnel

WEG offers a free comprehensive 2 1/2 day training at our facilities in Duluth, GA on WEG Variable Frequency Drives, Soft Starters and Electric Motors.

Train industrial refrigeration service technicians, operators and maintenance personnel in common practices enabling basic commissioning and programming of WEG VFDs and soft starters; as well as provide an understanding of importance of motor maintenance.

Location: Duluth, GA
PDH Certificate provided

Automation and Motor Training for Industrial Refrigeration Personnel

Overview of WEG VFD and Soft Starters

- Soft Starters vs VFD (SSW07, SSW900, CFW500, CFW11, complete panels)
 - Installation, programming, trouble shooting
- Retrofitting old starter and VFD packages with WEG SSW900

Overview of Motor Maintenance

- Motor Failures
- Why Maintenance Matters
- Maintenance Essentials
- Storage
- Installation
- Operation & Ongoing Maintenance
 - Bearings & Lubrication
 - Insulation
 - Cooling
 - Monitoring
- Repair vs. Replace

Schedule:

- Day 1: Set up, programming and troubleshooting WEG variable frequency drives
- Day 2: Set up, programming and troubleshooting WEG soft starters as well as facilities tour
- Day 3: 4 hours basic electric motor maintenance

For more details contact: refrigeration@weg.net
Onsite training is available with a fee. Ask about details

Reta.Training.Flyer. 50160613

